First God used the color red. Then he added green in the middle and a tad of yellow. Next he put in blue, followed by a indigo. And last but not least, God put in a hint of violet. God made Rainbows!